Reports:

Discussion on the following issues:

A. Guest Speaker: Kristy M. Fry, Tribal Coordinator US-EPA

- Discussion of the IGAP program. There has been some turnover in the past few years, it normally takes someone about 2 to 3 years to be more productive in this position. It is recommended that person in position is in the village but ultimately council decision for living in village full time.
- If FY17 approved possible to hire on Oct. 1st
- EPA doesn't allow a lot of implementation, really limited on funds. There is a fund baseline for air and water quality, limited on what's done after baseline assessment.
- For solid waste management need plan update before funding

B. Dock Project Supervisor – Dennis Courtney

- Everything is on track with no problems
- Equipment needed is in the container
- Dock workers arrive May 3rd
- Plate compactor for dock project/village costs around $2,000

C. Administrators Report – Steven Alvarez

- Report emailed out
- BBEDC grant reimbursement finished
- Pay for waist oil burner when arrives in naknek
- NAHASDA funding sent out
- Discussion on BBEDC 2015 block grant
- Discussion on BBEDC fuel voucher

D. AKEBS Finance Report – Katie Payton

- Collins up to date and payments have been made
- Reports for end of quarter are going in
- No BIA funds are available for 2016 yet

E. TAA Report – Marty Waters

- Hired and first full day Feb. 9th

F. ICWA Report – Irma Rhodes King

- Sexual abuse training coming up, required for grant
- Possibly able to combine FY13 nahasda funds with FY14 nahasda funds

G. BBEDC Liaison Report – Mike Enright

- Submitted applications for residents
- Asked about and got good reports on waist burner

H. BBAHC – Daniel Pingree SR.

-Report emailed out

I. BBNA Report – Daniel Pingree Jr.
