Re: Spring/Summer 2016 Newsletter

There will be an ICWA (Indian Child Welfare Act) Workshop on July 15, 2016, Friday, at the Community Center at 3pm-3:30pm AST (Alaska Standard Time). Both parents and children are welcome to attend. Steven Alvarez, our Tribal Administrator will be hosting the workshop and Clementine Shangin, our Tribal Administrator Assistant will co-host with Steven. I am not able to travel out this summer due to ICWA caseload. Our guest speaker will be John Bragg, CHP covering the topic: Kids Safety. Safety applies to all areas of a child's life from home/school/play/work. There will be an attendance sign-in sheet for the 2016 ICWA Workshop and then each attendee's name will be entered one time in the drawing box. There will be two prize drawings after the ICWA workshop is finished. Best wishes to all who enter the drawing.

This 2016 year is just flying by so fast with just a couple days ago was springtime and now summertime. I really enjoy working in the ICWA area for Ugashik Traditional Village along with staff and Tribal members. Stay safe in your activities and have a blessed summer 2016.
